Family Partners using their lived experiences can provide both families and agencies with tools that can help with reaching their goals.

1. Build trust with the family.
2. Have an advocate.
3. Create better outcomes with families and systems.

GREAT OUTCOMES
ENGAGED FAMILIES
“Nothing about us, without us.”

Family Partners support families and agencies.

Sometimes families face challenges and could benefit from the support of a Family Partner to help:

- BARRIERS TO ENGAGING THE FAMILY.
- FAMILY NEEDS AN ADVOCATE.
- FAMILY NEEDS SUPPORT DURING MEETINGS.
- FAMILY NEEDS LINKAGE TO RESOURCES.

What to expect when including a Family Partner:

UNDERSTANDING
Increase the family’s understanding of systems, referral and enrollment processes.

GUIDANCE
Assist with explaining system processes and time frames.

RESOURCE
Help families link and advocate for appropriate services to meet their goals and needs.

SUPPORT
Follow up to support the current plan and support in the family’s “next steps.”

Family Partners work to ensure “family voice and choice” is heard by helping families share their concerns and needs. They educate families using their lived experience with schools, courts, social services, and service providers.

- SHARES THE IMPORTANCE OF ENSURING THE FAMILY HAS A SEAT AT THE TABLE.
- ENCOURAGES FAMILIES TO SHARE WHAT’S IMPORTANT TO THEM.
- ENCOURAGES FAMILIES TO BECOME SELF ADVOCATES AS THEY BEGIN DRIVING THEIR CARE.

Systems work together with families and communities by finding and building on common goals, promoting collaboration, and implementing best practices.

- DECREASE MULTIPLE MEETINGS FOR FAMILIES AND AGENCY STAFF.
- INCREASE BETTER OUTCOMES FOR FAMILIES AND AGENCIES.
- HELPS IN CREATING TEAMS (CHILD AND FAMILY TEAMS AND INDIVIDUAL).
- ASSISTS IN LOCATING RESOURCES.
